

12 December 2016

Subject: Refraining from the Acceptance of Gifts

To: Customers

Thaicom Public Company Limited (the Company) places priority on conducting business transparently in accordance with the principles of good corporate governance and business ethics. In this regards, the Company is certified as a member of Thailand's Private Sector Collective Action Coalition Against Corruption (CAC). As such, the Company would like to ask you to refrain from giving gifts to the executives and employees of the Company and its affiliates during the 2017 New Year season or for any other occasions. The Company sincerely hopes to receive your cooperation and thanks you for your friendship and for choosing to do business with us during the past year, a gift which we hold highly dear.

As the 2017 New Year approaches, the Company extends our best wishes to all our business partners, their employees and their families. May you be blessed with happiness, success, and the fulfillment of all your wishes.

Yours sincerely,

(Paiboon Panuwattanwong)

Chief Executive Officer

Thaicom Public Company Limited

