Subject: Recent news article on Mfone Injunction by Cambodian Court

To: The President
The Stock Exchange of Thailand

A recent news article notes that a Cambodian Court has issued an injunction against Mfone, a company owned by Shenington Investments. Thaicom PLC. (the Company), as a company listed on the Stock Exchange of Thailand, would like to clarify that it is a shareholder in Shenington. The Company has no direct investment in Mfone and has only limited liability. The aforementioned injunction does not affect the Company.

The Company was informed by Shenington that the injunction against Mfone was issued to temporarily protect Mfone's creditors in the amount of USD$ 3.7 million. The Court injunction does not include an order for Mfone to pay this sum, and Shenington has requested the withdrawal of the injunction.

Please be informed accordingly.

Yours faithfully,
